Rabbit In A Pea Patch

Uncle Dave Macon

Scored for 2 mandolins, guitar

This is a square dance tune from the prolific Uncle Dave Macon, recorded in 1927. The A part plays through and is then replaced by the vocal chorus: Leader – “Get my dog, let’s go hunting.” Band – “Run that rabbit out of town.” The B part plays and is replaced by a verse: “Out on the hillside raking up some hay, rabbit in the pea patch eatin’ all day.”

The whole score – mandolins and guitar – is on two pages.
